LETTER FROM EXITING PRESIDENT

DR. M. CONSUELO BARREDA-HANSON

Many years ago, when I was young and felt oppressed by family, friends, school and society I read a book called “The Liberator of the Liberators”. It was about women that stood behind the great liberators of the world. They were buttresses to their man; always there for them, fully committed to see them reach their goal, their quest. They listened, supported, nurtured and with great skill advised in a way that these great men always thought it was they who had come with the ideas. They were there when they were at their lowest to help them get up and they were there when they were at their height, to applaud and praise. I always wanted to have a Liberator helping me be liberated.

Though not aware, I did have a liberator at several stages in my life, and in the recent years I have had an ICP one. We all have had such a woman amongst us. We have had her for many years. This is a woman who has always been there for me, from my pathway of president elect to president and I am sure she will be there when I am post president and beyond. She has been there mentoring, advising, supporting and raising me when low and praising when she felt I needed that extra bit of encouragement, but always in a way that made me feel it was I who did it all. This is a woman who has been behind many of us, but mostly, behind ICP, and I can honestly say, is a Liberator of ICP. And it is to this woman, that in Mexico, I had the great honor, privilege and thanks to pass on what should have been hers many years ago, the ICP banner and hand over the Presidency – Dr. Ann O’Roark.

I thank not only Dr Ann O’Roark for all she has done to support me and ICP during my two years as President Elect and President, two years of big challenges, but ending in the successful Mexican conference, but I also thank the Board who offered guidance and support as well as challenges for me to meet and many of the Members who similarly gave input. All of which ended in a most stimulating experience, thanks to the excellent planning and organization carried out by Dr Elisa Margaona and her team, Dr Ann O’Roark and our conference registrar, Ms Nancy Quatrano. Because of their unfailing faith that we could pull this through, in spite of the flus, the elections and the associated problems, we were exposed to excellent Central and South America speakers, great workshops and of course, that delectable food, wonderful music and dance in the way that only Mexicans can provide.

There are many to thank but not enough space, amongst them 2008 Interim SG and Treasurer, Dr Ken Elliott; Communications and Publications Committee Chair and Temporary Webmaster Dr Richard Velayo; IP Dr Editor Annie Crooks and new Managing Co-Editors Sonia Dhaliwal and Elizabeth Stotler-Turner; CE Chair Dr Mercedes McCormick; those who helped update the Bylaws, Sherri McCarthy, Joy Rice, Paul Lloyd; the Chairs of the ICP committees; and all those who have faithfully and diligently served on them, putting ICP on the map and giving selflessly to ensure our continuity and ongoing success.

We will continue to need all your support for our continuity and I leave the Presidency assured we are in the best of hands, with the knowledge that AnnMarie, or AnitaO’ as I have enjoyed calling her, will guide us with the great skill and dedication she has demonstrated through the years. I wish us all well in the next year ahead.

Above: Consuelo Barreda-Hanson, Roswith Roth, AnnMarie O’Roark (current President, 2009-10), Elisa honouring past presidents of ICP and calligraphy [Board MAL Cheng Chien Chen].

January 17, 2010. St. Augustine, Florida USA. Cheng Chien Chen, ICP Board Member at Large, sent an email reminding us that this New Year is known as “The Year of the Tiger” in many parts of the world. “It is a sign of courage. This fearless and fiery fighter is revered by the ancient Chinese as the sign that wards off the three main disasters of a household: fire, thieves, and ghosts. On New Year’s Day itself, it is beneficial to celebrate, to be happy, to have smiling faces, and to refrain from scowling, quarrelling, or criticizing anyone.”

Courage is certainly necessary for ICP members in this extended “transition” phase of association life. ICP’s journey across 68 years is filled with challenges and shifts, from name changes and administrative patterns, to its amazing history of interesting annual gathering places such as Paris, Lisbon, St. Petersburg, Tokyo, Singapore, Jinan, Banff, Kos Island, Foz de Iguacu, Amsterdam, San Francisco, Mania, Graz.

Like Brigadoon, ICP arises annually for face to face dialogues among psychologists who share a dream – a dream of advancing the application of psychology’s scientific findings throughout the world. To achieve that goal, ICP seeks to strengthen international bonds between individual psychologists.

ICP is the only professional association of individual psychologists that comprises all specializations of the discipline and welcomes colleagues from every cultural background. Inclusiveness brings with it the potential for misunderstandings and conflicting perspectives. Nevertheless, ICP’s long standing value for the universality of science and of human rights inspires the band of members to continue to seek ways to remain a viable organization. Important changes are afoot and I summarize several here briefly.

Most urgent is the need for members to send their dues as soon as possible. Go to the website and use the PayPal payment method for submitting dues by credit card. Richard Velayo has generously hosted the temporary site <http://rvelayo.com/icpweb> for ICP. Dr. Velayo has been serving as Communications and Publications Committee Chair beyond his term and he must stand aside from this function in the next few weeks. You can contact Treasurer Jerry Gamache for more information at geraldgamache@bellsouth.net.

Breaking news is that Dr. Robert Clark was to begin his pilot year as ICP Secretary General, but is unable to step into that role due to health issues and pending surgery. The good news is President Carroll Cradock and Dean Ellis Copeland are preparing to staff the Secretariat with assistants who can manage the ICP database, the website, and continue to assist with arrangements for the 68th Conference. ICP wishes Bob Clark a full recovery and healthy future.

Registration forms for the 68th conference to be held in Chicago are included in this newsletter. Also, there are updated versions of the calls for scientific program abstracts, workshop proposals, and In Absentia Poster proposals. As we close the calendar on 2009, ICP can share in thanksgiving for the hard persistent work done by several loyal ICP members in 2009. I especially express gratitude to Dr. Florence Denmark for unflagging work with the United Nations in the name of ICP and Dr. Jerry Gamache for being willing to undertake the call for dues. Finally, thank you to Richard Velayo, Noach & Roberta Milgram, Consuelo Bareda-hanson, Sandra Neil, Roswith Roth, Dietrich Albert, Anna Laura Comunian, Donna Goetz, Sherri McCarthy, Michael Stevens, Elisa Margaona and Joy Rice who have never failed to be strong and generously positive problem solvers and contributors.

The ICP-09 Program Committee invites proposals for:

- ❖ Full Day 9 to 5 PM or
- ❖ Half Day 9 to 12 PM or
- ❖ 2 to 5 PM seminars as part of the Workshop Program of the 68th International Council of Psychologists Conference.
- ❖ The ICP-2010 Workshops will focus on key themes and interventions regarding values about Psychological Issues Internationally. ICP-2010 will host these workshops in a supportive learning environment wherein the leader and participants will have the opportunity to exchange knowledge and skills about the workshop theme. All participants will have the opportunity to earn APA continuing education units or World Continuing Education Credits per attendance at the workshop.
- ❖ Registration material is available on (<http://conference.icpweb.org/>)

Workshop Proposal Content

Proposals are to 2-3 pages and contain the following information:

- ❖ Proposed Title of the Workshop
- ❖ A brief description of the Workshop, specifying the 68th ICP goals and theme and/or intervention that will be the focus.
- ❖ A brief description why the workshop is of particular interest.
- ❖ An indication as to whether the workshop is to be considered for a half or full day meeting.
- ❖ A list of the presenters and their roles.
- ❖ Supply contact information, including the names, postal addresses, phone numbers, addresses of the workshop presenter
- ❖ ICP will advertise your workshop through the conference program and other media publications.

Workshop proposals need to be submitted by December 22, 2009.

Late Submission Deadline: February 27, 2010.

Presenters will be notified by the committee's decision by April 1, 2010.

Inquiries concerning workshop submissions need to be sent to Mercedes A. McCormick, Ph.D., CEU Chair at mmccormick2@pace.edu & Ludwig Lowenstein, ICP President-Elect at Ludwig.lowenstein@btinternet.com

By April 23, 2010: The ICP-2010 Committee will appreciate receiving a workshop paper (if available) to be included in the Conference Proceedings.

ICP-2010 reserves the right to cancel any workshop if deadlines are missed, if too few submissions are received or if too few attendees register for the workshop. In special cases ICP-2010 workshop committee may suggest the consolidation of workshops to prevent the need for cancellation. All workshop participants must register for the conference and workshops must be open to all registered participants of the ICP-2010 Conference. <http://conference.icpweb.org/>

Important Dates for Workshop Submission

Dec. 22, 2009: Workshop Proposal submission.

Feb. 27, 2010: Late Deadline Proposal Submission.

April 1, 2010: Notification of acceptance of workshop proposals.

April 23, 2010: The submission of the workshop paper (if available) to be included in ICP-09 Conference proceedings.

Consuelo.barreda-hanson@act.gov.au
cbarredahanson@yahoo.com.au

The Role of the President Elect, President, and Immediate Past President:

The President-Elect assumes duties of the President in the event of the latter's absence, resignation, or inability to perform the duties of office. Serving "pro tem," the President-Elect fulfils the duties of the President-Elect.

The President is the professional administrative leader of the International Council of Psychologists, responsible for seeing that the activities of the Council proceed smoothly during his or her Presidential year, and that advance planning for the following year and the years ahead is given priority.

The Immediate Past-President is Chair of the Nominations and Elections Committee, which includes a Nominations Sub-Committee devoted to finding candidates and constructing a ballot, and an Elections Sub-Committee devoted to validating and counting ballots, and constructing and signing the Elections Report.

The Role of the Secretary:

The Secretary is responsible for the preparation of all minutes of Board meetings, Executive Committee meetings and Annual Membership Business Meetings.

The Role of the Directors:

Directors of the International Council of Psychologists (the Council or ICP) are policy makers of the Council.

Individual Directors do not represent any one area of the world or any one psychological specialty, but contributes his or her expertise in such matters, to the deliberations of the Board, in the best interests of the entire organization.

The Role of the Student Representative:

Student Representative will keep students who participate and those that earn awards active in the organization and advise the board of student issues.

IP Report of the Treasurer

Dear ICP Members and Colleagues,

ICP dues announcements were sent by postal and email in early October. Since that time another call for dues has been sent out. As of March 15, upwards of 80 members have paid dues, including 25 were mailed to me by individuals not having access to email. ICP survival is dependent on dues collection. After December 15, 2009 ICP has imposed a late fee of $15.00. Our projected budget for 2010 is $23,000 for which ICP has collected 50% in dues. On the bright side, the convention in Mexico City was a success yielding $1,237.13 after all refunds and expenses were paid. That money will seed the Chicago convention. Finally, ICP has $16,500. in Bank of America.

Dr. Gamache
ICP, Treasurer

A CALL FOR DUES

Area Chair of New Zealand Report for 2009

Dear ICP Members,

The year 2009 was full of challenges. It certainly started like a big challenge. As a consequence of shoulder injuries that happened in 2008 and a subsequent shoulder surgery in December 2008, I was unable to use my left arm: it was in a sling. Given that I am using a wheelchair due to my spinal injury that happened 30 years ago, my left shoulder surgery meant that the year 2009 started in a very limited fashion. I had the ability to move my right arm. Sounds pathetic, doesn't it? Just six months prior to the surgery, I moved to Auckland where I knew very few colleagues psychologists. This could have meant that I was going to face personal and professional isolation. How terrible!!! Hence I learned again that us people are always more able than expected. I decided to challenge all those dull and passive prospective. I decided then and there, to make many new things happen in 2009.

What helped? One could say: heart full of life and desires as well as wonderful people that I am surrounded with. Our personal life is a driver and we people move all our dreams by living them wholeheartedly. Little or huge, each dream as well as each step, deserves commitment and respect. This is where life starts: from a little spot, from a little step. I moved forward by inviting my dear friend and respected colleague, to visit me in my New Zealand home. I had a great pleasure of inviting Consuelo Barreda Hanson, our ICP President. My pleasure and honour was even greater when Consuelo called saying that she would come! What happened next?

Consuelo, being just who she is, followed the visions and goodness of her heart and she offered to present a gift workshop to, as she said, "a few New Zealand colleagues". I have organised "few calls and meetings". The outcome was: on 07th of April 2009, Dr. Consuelo Barreda Hanson was welcomed by the large group of Clinical Psychologists that work for the Waitemata District Health Board (WDHB), the largest health board in New Zealand. They appreciated Consuelo's wonderful gift! The workshop was about: Adaptations of EMDR and Brief Therapy/Client Focused to Change Negative Perception of Trauma. This was a wonderful time of learning and sharing and unique opportunity to introduce ICP to a large group of Clinical Psychologists in New Zealand.

Since this workshop, I returned to work in May 09, when I developed many new relationships across truly wonderful teams within the Child Mental Health services (WDHB). Since, may 09, I was invited by another DHB: Counties Manukau DHB (CMDHB) to be the only Clinical Psychologist in Acute Mental Health unit that cares for 60 inpatients at any time. I moved to this position in November 2009. I am currently working there and thoroughly enjoying my work: thanks to the multidisciplinary team of wonderful people and professionals who care well for our clients. Again, I have a pleasure of leasing with many Clinical Psychologists across all DHBs. We are currently developing new working or consult groups across DHBs, such as: Trauma & Psychosis Consult Group; Recovery Focused Group, Hearing Noises group; Working with Acutely Disturbed Adults-Consult Group. On the 10th of November 2009, the Aotearoa New Zealand Association for CBT (AnzaCBT) has been established and the president is Dr. Paul Merrick, leading Clinical Psychologist and Head of the School of Psychology at the Massey University. I have a great pleasure working closely with these new groups and, thus, sharing all about the culture and growth of ICP.

The International Council of Psychologists is a family of people who share genuine commitment to the benefits of our clients, true respect, support, live curiosity as well as desire to share experience and knowledge: these are the lines that drew the portrait of ICP. Many of my colleagues in New Zealand are now interested to learn more about the ICP. I will make sure that many will do. This is the first step: their eyes are becoming aware of the light that ICP radiates and I truly hope that future will welcome some valuable members from New Zealand.

I wish you all a Happy New 2010! Let this New Year become a source of many new opportunities for us all to meet more often, to visit each others, to share our interests and knowledge... to be even better family.

Warm regards from finally sunny New Zealand/Aotearoa.

IP Report

Julia Rose (BSc (HONS), MSc, Post-MSc Dip, C.Psychol, AFBPsS)

Exciting times are ahead on the membership front. With the recent launch of the new regeneration programme, there has been an increase in new membership and membership reinstatements. However, we still have quite a journey to go. In October 2009 the Board launched the new campaign, consisting of:

Ann Marie O’Roark, Presidential Goal & Board Priority, Sandra E. S. Neil, World Area Chair Coordinator and Campaign Chair, Julia Rose, Membership Committee Chair and Campaign Registrar and Gerald L. Gamache, Treasurer and 2010 Dues Collection Manager. In addition President Elect, Ludwig Lowenstein, and other Board members are working hard behind the scenes to increase the membership.

Unfortunately the previous organization who assisted us with our membership recruitment records and collection of dues, we were left in a ‘bit of a pickle’ (as the British would phrase it). We have been left with several versions of membership lists, none of which tally with each other, and addresses and contact details are also out of date. In addition, as new members joined, the information was not being cascaded to the Membership Chair or World Area Chair. Other members experienced problems with the collection of dues, whilst others, including myself, paid their dues and did not appear on the list of paid members; despite several reminders to the ‘organization’.

As a result, Dr Gamache and I are working hard to update the membership’s lists, and contact details. Improvements will ensure that it will be a smooth process for all new members joining ICP. Our new World Chair, Sandra O’Neil and Area Chairs’ are doing a wonderful job contacting new members as they join and following up with the vetting procedure; they will also nurture them through their first year of membership and encourage attendance at Conferences. Dr Gamache, Ann O’Roark and I are putting together a membership directory, which will include various items such as research interests.

To conclude there is still much to do and it has been a challenging and interesting year and the work has commenced with enthusiasm; I am excited at the thought of an improved membership system. There are many areas that need to be enhanced and I hold both our Past President Consuelo Barreda-Hanson and Current President Ann O’Roark, and President Elect Ludwig Lowenstein in high esteem with their continued dedication and hard work in their roles toward the current and future of ICP. They have worked beyond the call of duty for the good of ICP.

I look forward to welcoming many more new members to ICP in addition to and to the 2010 convention in Chicago.

If you have any suggestions regarding membership matters, please contact me on: rosejulia6@aol.com

Area Chair Report for Italy, 2009

Psychologists in Italy are more present in various social and clinical contexts, and their contribution is beginning to be actively sought in various health care contexts for psychological support to patients and families - e.g. for cancer patients - and in school contexts - for phenomena like bullying and in general for the integration of students from different origins - due to the recent massive phenomenon of immigration to Italy.

This immigration is relatively recent and involves women from some east-European and non European countries. In time, immigration will bring other members of the family to Italy. Adolescents, who are unfamiliar with the language and/or not prepared to face such a radical life change, are forced to attend schools with which they have little to no chance of being successful in. Another recent trend in psychological studies involves the phenomenon of the "mafia pentiti." This is translated to mean, repented mafia criminals who accept to turn State's evidence and dissociate themselves from the past, or the growing interest in the study of victims of crime offenses, or of young offenders.

An area of growing interest is also the phenomenon of virtual communities of practice on line with its implications on privacy, a social network analysis which is also related with the possibility of defending oneself from being reported in the network - in photographs and/or in words - in an intrusive and offensive manner. Many other areas including gender studies, peer opportunities, ageing, and new substance-abuse are attracting the interest of researchers.

With the current economic challenges in Italy and Europe in general, young psychologists find it difficult to secure jobs which allow them to travel and attend ICP meetings. Therefore I am encouraging them to send posters to help them become involved in ICP, and to become members of the 2010 Regional Meeting in Padua. Some of them have showed interest and are becoming members.

Together with past president Anna Laura Comunian, I have collaborated to the nomination for the position of Student Board Member, for which I have contacted a PhD student, Alexander Hochdorn, who has agreed to the nomination. His family is international and he is interested in intercultural studies. He recently presented his curriculum and a letter of agreement. In the future, I am planning to further increase contacts with psychologists who are active in various fields.

NEWS

Dear friends,

Some of you may have heard, but I wanted to be sure that you all knew, that Henry David died on New Year's Eve of complications associated with metastatic cancer. He was on the way to his physician's office – already in the lobby of the building – when he faltered, slipped to the floor, and died instantly. For those of you who may not have known Henry, he was a pioneer in the area of reproductive psychology and consulted widely around the world on issues of reproductive health.

Henry was 85 when he died and had not been as active in APA in recent years. In earlier years he was active on several boards and committees as a member of Council and as a generous contributor to APF. He was probably better known in international rather than national circles, and his network of friends and colleagues around the world, many of whom he had mentored, was extensive.

Henry's family was wiped out in the Holocaust – he was spared only because he was in the United States as part of an educational exchange program for Jewish boys. He often noted the irony that his family died because they were Jewish and he was saved because he was Jewish. Most of his age cohort in Germany died, either in military service or in the concentration camps.

Sandy and I will miss Henry's warmth and friendship very much, as will hundreds of his friends and admirers. He lived a good and productive life.

Best,

Ray
